Members of the 2010 Crestview Open Class Winter Colorguard can expect to attend regional competitions in Pensacola Atlanta and possibly Orlando, as well as World Championships in Dayton, Ohio. The guard will be under the direction of Jeff Welsh. The guard will have local circuit contests most Saturdays, beginning the third weekend in January. There may be part-time positions in the unit. Required rehearsals will be two evenings per school week and on Saturdays. There will also be mandatory rehearsals during Thanksgiving, Christmas, MLK and President's Day, as well as Spring Break. If a student must miss any rehearsal, the director should be notified, in person by a parent, at the beginning of that rehearsal. Uniform and travel expenses for Open Class winterguard will be approximately $795 plus two required $100 fundraisers. If there is sufficient interest in winterguard, a second guard will be developed and compete in Class A. This unit will compete in local circuit contests and possibly the WGI Pensacola Regional. Fees for this unit would be less than the Open guard and approximately $450. Please be prepared to turn in a deposit of $150 toward your operating expenses at the rehearsal on October 19, 2009. This non-refundable deposit should be made payable to Crestview High School. There will be an additional non-refundable deposit of $150.00 due on November 10. Positions in the shows will only be developed for members who have been selected and have made these payments.
